Item Description

Early 19th Century mahogany Irish side table with marble top. The blind fretwork frieze with arch-style carvings wraps all four sides of the tabletop which is completed by a solid rectangular marble top. This piece stands on four highly carved cabriole legs with acanthus leaves and scrolling to the knees, and terminating on ball and dragon claw feet. Circa 1820.

Provenance: Annesley Family, Mourne Park, Co. Down
