Item Description

19th Century Georgian six door breakfront secretaire bookcase. The molded cornice to the top sits above six elliptical paned glass doors to the upper section which opens to adjustable interior shelves. The centre section with secretaire drawer opens to reveal a drop front falling to display a fully fitted interior above cupboard doors below. The centre drawer is flanked by a further two drawers on either side with simple round brass handles. Six square flamed mahogany cupboard doors span the lower section.
