Item Description

The stepped molded cornice is surmounted by a swan-neck pediment with a centered acanthus crest, flanked by carved scroll and sunflower motifs. Two bevel mirrored doors open to reveal a fitted drawer section above two short cockbeaded drawers with brass pulls and escutcheons, flanked by carved scroll details. The base consists of two long cockbeaded drawers below a top extendable drawer front, which opens to a writing desk that slides back to reveal fitted compartments. With ogee bracket feet.

Provenance: from the collection of Colonel and Maeb Daly Russborough House, Co. Wicklow.
