

3216 - Early 19th Century Empire Pair of Simulated Tortoise Shell and Ormolu Occasional Tables

SKU: 3216 - Early 19th Century Empire Pair of Simulated Tortoise Shell and Ormolu Occasional Tables

Item Categories: End and Occasional Tables

Item Page:

<https://osullivanantiques.com/newyork/item/3216-early-19th-century-empire-pair-of-simulated-tortoise-shell-and-ormolu-occasional-tables/>

Item Description

Each of these tables features a red-and-black simulated tortoiseshell top of circular form, with a molded ormolu rim, on a turned and fluted baluster pedestal with a ribbon motif and three outscrolling acanthus leaves, all atop a tricorn platform base with lambs-tongue molding and paw feet.

Circa 1820.

Item Attributes

- Height: 27 ½ inches
- Width: 16 inches
- Depth: 16 inches

Item Gallery

